FREE TEMPLATES · VA 101 EP 35

Customer Support VA Basics

Calm, clear and kind replies keep customers, even when something went wrong.

Step	What to say
1. Acknowledge	Show you understand the problem and the feeling
2. Apologise	A short, sincere sorry
3. Action	What you are doing now, with a time
4. Assure	How you will keep them updated

Support habits

☐ Reply within the agreed time, even just to say you are checking
☐ Use the customer's name
☐ One email, one clear next step
☐ Tag and set the status of every ticket
☐ Escalate refunds, legal threats and VIPs to the client

Ticket status	Meaning
Open	New, not answered
Pending	Waiting on the customer
On hold	Waiting on the team or client
Solved	Fixed, customer informed

COPY AND PASTE · VA 101 EP 35

Ready-to-use replies

Change the details. Keep the tone warm and simple.

DELAY

Hi Ana, thanks for your patience. Your order is delayed by 2 days because of the courier. It will arrive on Friday. I will send the tracking link as soon as I have it.

REFUND REQUEST

Hi Mark, I am sorry this did not work for you. I have sent your refund request to our team. You will get an update within 24 hours.

NEED MORE INFO

Hi Sarah, happy to help! Could you send your order number and a photo of the problem? Then I can fix this for you right away.

ANGRY CUSTOMER

Hi Karen, I understand, and I am sorry. Here is what I have done: [action]. I will update you by [time] today.

CANNOT DO IT

Hi Tom, thanks for asking. We do not offer that, but here is what we can do: [option]. Would that work for you?

CLOSING THE TICKET

Glad this is fixed, Jen! If anything else comes up, just reply to this email. Have a great day.