Keep the Client, Raise Your Rate

Messages you can send. Change the [brackets] to your real numbers and results.

WEEKLY SUMMARY (EVERY FRIDAY)

Hi [Name], quick summary of this week:
- Done: [3 results with numbers]
- Saved you: [time or money, if you know it]
- Next week: [top 3]
- One idea: [small improvement]

Anything you want me to do more of, or less of?

ASKING FOR A RAISE (AFTER 3 TO 6 MONTHS OF GOOD WORK)

Hi [Name], I've really enjoyed working with you these past [months] months. Since I started, I've [result 1], [result 2] and taken over [new task].
I'd like to ask if we can review my rate from [current] to [new] starting [date]. I'm happy to keep growing with the business and take on [new skill or task].
Would you be open to talking about it this week?

ASKING FOR A REFERRAL OR REVIEW

Hi [Name], thanks again for trusting me with [work]. If you know another business owner who needs help with [service], I'd be grateful for an intro. And if you have a minute, a short review on [Upwork / LinkedIn] would help me a lot. Thank you!

Before you ask for a raise

- You have results you can show: numbers, time saved, SOPs, happy feedback.
- You took on more tasks or a new skill since you started.
- You ask politely, by message or call, and give a start date.
- If the answer is "not yet", ask: "What would you need to see from me in the next 2 to 3 months?"
