SSS, PhilHealth and Pag-IBIG for Freelance VAs (2026)

No employer pays for you, so you pay on your own. Here is a simple guide. Always confirm the latest rates on the official sites before you pay.

Agency	Rate (2026)	Monthly range	Register and pay
SSS Self-employed or Voluntary	15% of your Monthly Salary Credit (MSC ₱5,000 to ₱35,000)	₱750 to ₱5,250 Self-employed add EC: ₱10 or ₱30	My.SSS or SSS Mobile App. Generate a PRN, then pay with GCash, Maya, bank or Bayad Center.
PhilHealth Direct contributor (self-earning)	5% of monthly income (floor ₱10,000, ceiling ₱100,000)	₱500 to ₱5,000	PhilHealth Member Portal. Pay through accredited partners like GCash, Maya or banks.
Pag-IBIG Self-employed or Voluntary	Based on fund salary (max ₱10,000)	Usually ₱200 and up Optional: MP2 savings	Virtual Pag-IBIG. Pay online with GCash, Maya, bank or card.

Getting started

☐ SSS: register in My.SSS as self-employed (with income) or voluntary member
☐ PhilHealth: update your membership to direct contributor (self-earning)
☐ Pag-IBIG: register or update in Virtual Pag-IBIG and get your MID number
☐ Pick an amount you can keep paying every month

Rules to remember

☐ SSS: pay by the end of the following month. Missed months cannot be paid later
☐ You can pay in advance for several months
☐ Keep every receipt and PRN
☐ Check your posted contributions in each portal monthly

Rates based on published 2026 tables. This is a guide, not legal or financial advice. Confirm at sss.gov.ph, philhealth.gov.ph and pagibigfund.gov.ph.
